

VIENNESE MEMORIES

„Viennese Memories” mirrors Vienna in the 1930ies through the personal memories of Leo Bretholz. Being raised in Vienna’s 20th district, Bretholz introduces you to “his” Vienna, talks about his upbringing, daily life in the district, and events of antisemitism and discrimination he has encountered.

Route:

The audio guide starts at the corner of Friedensbrücke and Roßauer Lände 🎧, right at the exit of the subway stop Friedensbrücke (U4). The tour leads across the Donaukanal (Danube Canal), then along Wallensteinstraße until Wallensteinplatz 🎧. For the next stop, please take a few steps back on Wallensteinstraße until you reach the building Wallensteinstraße 23 🎧. For the last stop, please proceed to Kluckygasse 11 🎧.

Advice:

We recommend the use of good headphones that cover your ears entirely. Please allow yourself time for each of the audio guides. They require a high level of attention.

Contact:

Directors: Philipp Haydn (p.haydn@hoerspuren.at), Maria Ecker (m.ecker@hoerspuren.at)